Break Ground For Trinity Church

The groundbreaking service for the new Trinity Evangelical United Brethren Church to be constructed at the corner of Beck Road and Valley Drive in Lindenhurst was held Sunday morning, August 26 at 10:45 a.m.

The pastor of the Church, the Rev. Thomas E. Lowery, conducted the service which included the breaking of ground by the building committee and the pastor, Mr. Paul Blomquist, building committee chairman, turned the first shovel of earth. This act was repeated by other members of the committee: Andrew Clawson, Richard Gorski, Tony Antonacci, and the pastor.

The Church, which will be constructed by Lee Johnson & Company of Skokie, Ill., will consist of the main sanctuary, which will seat approximately 175; the educational unit with space for about 6 classes and which will also serve as a fellowship hall; the pastor's study, and parking lot. Construction cost of the building will be $50,000.

Mr. Norman Werner, architect of Werner Associates of Glenview, Ill., and architect of the building project states that the building should be completed in about four months. Construction will begin this week.

Trinity EUB Church has been assigned to the Lindenhurst community by a cooperative agreement with the county commission of the Church Federation of Greater Chicago and the Illinois Council of Churches. Trinity Church will celebrate its second anniversary during the month of September. Services are currently being conducted at the B. J. Hooper School. Sunday School at 9:30 a.m. and worship at 10:45 a.m.

C.C. Plans Sept. Sale

The Antioch Chamber of Commerce Board discussed general plans for the next retail promotion, tentatively scheduled for some time in September, at their meeting Tuesday night. Members present decided to suggest that the Retail Promotion committee establish two price schedules for the promotion. A lower price would be charged for the participation of the dues-paying merchant.

William Brook, president of the Chamber, and George Camphausen, executive secretary, will be on hand at the opening of the newly re-modeled Ben Franklin Store to congratulate Chester Dubis, owner, as representatives of the Chamber.

It was reported at the meeting that all local industries have been contacted and invited to join the chamber. The next general meeting of the Chamber will be held at the Scout House in Antioch at 7 p.m. September 1. Non-members who are interested are invited to attend, as well as members.

To Become Eagle Scout

Roger Eberman will be promoted to Eagle Scout when Troop 86 holds its fifth annual Court of Honor at 8 p.m. Saturday, Aug. 31. Roger is the first Scout of Troop 86 in eleven years to make the Eagle Scout rating. The colorful outdoor ceremonies, with the boys and their leaders in Indian costumes, will take place at the grounds of the Northern Illinois Conservation Club this year. The grounds are on Country Club Road, one mile off Route 173. The road is just west of the channel at Charlie's Channel Inn, and is marked by a NICC sign.

ROGER EBERMAN, Troop 86, will receive the rank of Eagle Scout at Saturday night's ceremonies at Channel Lake.

The public is invited to come and view the ceremonies. With a huge bonfire for background, and the outdoor setting, visitors have found the evening a rewarding experience in past years.

Eagle Scout requirements include: a scout must have earned all ranks in scouting beginning with tenderfoot, through 2nd class, 1st class, Star and Life; while a Life Scout for at least six months, he must work actively as a leader in meetings, outdoor activities and service projects of the troop; he must earn the following merit badges: 3 Citizenship badges, first aid, public health, safety, fireman's, camping, cooking, swimming, lifesaving, nature, conservation, personal fitness and an outdoor sports badge. This is a total of fifteen. A boy may choose six other badges for a total of 21. Roger has earned 23.

Bigger and Better — But The Same Friendly Store — Ben Franklin Grand Re-Opening

"The same friendly store, but with a bigger selection than ever." That's the way John Stevens, manager of the Ben Franklin store, on Lake St. in Antioch, sums up the recent remodeling to the store.

You might call it the understatement of the year. The selection is not only considerably larger in the lines previously stocked by the store, there are entirely new departments in addition.

The new snack bar, of course, is one of the new features of the enlarged store which shoppers will appreciate.

One of the most revolutionary new features is the addition of a line of unfinished and casual furniture. There are attractive, and amazingly low-priced, occasional chairs, end tables, and numerous other articles of furniture.

The women's wear department has been tremendously expanded, with a bigger selection of the same kind of clothes previously carried by the store and the addition of women's and children's coats and jackets.

The shoe department, the drape selection, lamps—all these lines and many others have been enlarged to hold a wide selection.

We have to leave a few things for you to find out for yourselves. But don't neglect to check the new greeting card section—carrying the Buiza Cardoza line—and the variety of pictures for the decoration of your home. The Grand Opening starts today (Thursday) and continues through Friday and Saturday, with gifts for all.

Various officials of the Ben Franklin's parent organization, Butler Brothers, and owners of other stores within a radius of 100 miles were treated to a preview of the enlarged store Wednesday night. Antioch's Ben Franklin will now be the largest Ben Franklin store in the area, and owners from other towns viewed the improvements to garner possible ideas for improving their own business plans.

Last-minute jobs were being completed when we toured the store Tuesday, and salesgirls were busily arranging new merchandise on shelves. Oh, yes, don't forget to take a look at the new line of rugs—and light fixtures.

Consider Alleys

It would seem logical for the village board of Antioch to start considering the idea that alleys should be provided for in any future building of a commercial nature that is to be done in Antioch.

The lack of alleys is sorely felt by business places along both Main St. and Lake St. The resulting tie-up of traffic when bulky merchandise is unloaded is a definite nuisance. And an alley as an exit from some of the parking lots would do a great deal to ease traffic congestion on busy streets.

The same bottleneck is bound to develop on streets servicing multi-family apartments. Numerous delivery trucks will have to park along streets and highways while making delivery to tenants.

Whether or not the cost of the alley would fall on the builder or on the village, or whether it would be shared, would have to be determined by the amount of revenue the village would expect to gain from the new building. In some cases, it wouldn't seem unreasonable for the village to earmark future sales tax revenue from a business to finance the cost, or part of the cost, of an alley.

It might be argued that a town as small as Antioch doesn't need alleys. But Antioch is hardly an average town. As the center of a resort area, and of an area as thickly populated as a city suburb, traffic is much heavier than most towns its size.

It's true, it may be impossible to remedy the situation in the already-developed business area. But we could avoid the continuing development of the same problems in areas now being developed, which in a few years will probably be just as busy—and just as impossible to remedy—as the situation in the business streets that are now built up.

Legal Gambling

Gambling, says Illinois law (and the law in most states) is illegal.

It's also immoral, say a great many church leaders.

Gambling with money, that is.

Gambling with your life and the life of others—well, that's something else again.

You're gambling every time you drive one of today's high-powered ears down the highway at the speed demanded by today's traffic.

You're betting that oncoming traffic will remain in its own lane; that a tire won't blow out; that your steering gear, your brakes, all the vital mechanical parts that control the operation of your car are in good working condition; that that young man at the service station who changed your tire fastened the wheel on securely.

You're inches away from death every time your car passes one speeding in the opposite direction. Even though each of you may be traveling a moderate 50 or 60 miles an hour—moderate by today's traffic standards—you're betting your life that something won't cause you or the other driver to swerve suddenly—a sudden uncontrollable sneeze, a child lurching against your arm, blinding light from sun or another car's headlights, a child or animal running suddenly into the path—you're betting none of these things will make you or the other driver swerve.

You're betting your life every time you come around a blind curve—betting that there won't be something in your path. A reckless driver passing on a curve, perhaps. You're gambling that the road will be clear when you approach the crest of a hill at high speed.

But it's only life your gambling with, not money. People are used to the idea of gambling with life. No need for a lot of discussion over whether or not it's legal.

There are laws to try to stop us from losing our money by gambling. We all know it would be foolish to try to protect us from gambling our lives. Even though we see people lose the gamble every day.

Probably about 500 people will lose their gamble with death on the nation's highways during the coming Labor Day week-end. It won't stop any of us from taking the same bet on the next big holiday week-end, though. We're all born gamblers—as long as it doesn't cost us money.

Letters to the Editor

The Antioch News
Antioch, Illinois

Dear Sir:
I hope that you have a letter box or something like it for a resident to express himself.

I am reminded of the story of the man on his way to market to sell his donkey. In his attempt to please all his critics along the way, he lost the donkey when crossing the bridge.

My donkey in this case was our family pet dog, that we raised since last year from ten days old. He was the children's pet and also our protection at night. My critics have been a few of my neighbors. For the past month I have done everything possible to prevent him from annoying them. He was on his line in the back yard all day, and at street lighting time was immediately brought into the house for the night until 9:00 a.m. And before retiring, I myself took him out into the yard a few minutes. I admit he barked during the day, when the children played in the yard—and we always have a yard full of children—anywhere between two and a dozen besides my own, because he too wanted to play. But because of human failings, and we all have them whether we admit them or not, he got loose once or twice when his line and collar broke, but just for a few minutes. The last time was Thursday. When we put him back on his line he was upset as well as the children by a neighbor's annoyance and threat, so that when one of the neighbor's children went up to him to pet him he bit her slightly on the arm. Had the mother talked to me. I would have watched him for 10 days—as others have done, but she reported him, and because I cannot take food from the children's mouths to pay for 10 days emphysema, we have had to give him up.

So congratulations to you who have wished this to be. But let me also say, I really pity you more than my children, who have lost their pet. And I am thankful that I am so busy raising my large family that I do not have the time to even see what my neighbors are doing or failing to do, let alone to be annoyed because their likes or habits do not conform to mine. And as soon as we can get a new puppy or maybe two, we shall.

Thank you.
—One who believes in live and let live.

School Opens—Watch Out For Kids

"Children returning for a new school year pose an additional traffic hazard," Police Chief Walter Scott said today. "As drivers and parents we are doubly obligated to be on the look-out for youngsters."

Last year, traffic accidents were on the rise. Unless something is done now, the toll this year will be even higher. One out of every six traffic deaths in 1962 was a pedestrian, with senior citizens and children under 14 being the most vulnerable.

The opening of the new school year not only puts more children on the streets as pedestrians, but the traffic flow increases considerably. Many young people drive to school and many more parents transport their children to and from school. Drivers are, therefore, required to be doubly alert. They have more pedestrians to watch out for, and the traffic is heavier.

The safe driver's lot is a tough one. It seems pitiful that so few motorists realize this and fail to regard their position behind the wheel with the gravity they should.

Courthouse Notebook

BY LOU DUKKIN

You wonder where the summer went when you drive past the high schools in the county and see the football hopefuls working out under a hot August sun or drive through the shopping areas and see the signs advertising "Back-to-School" sales.

The kids who moped a good part of the summer wondering what to do with all their time are suddenly plunged into a frenzy of activity as they look around the corner of Labor Day and find another school term staring them in the eye.

And isn't it surprising that those youngsters who didn't seem to grow an inch during the summer months are sticking out of the legs of their trousers and the sleeves of their jackets and finding it difficult to get the skirts and slacks fastened at the waist?

With back-to-school in the air it was fitting that the Lake County Republican Central Committee adopt an educational theme for its annual golf outing at Chevy Chase last week.

The theme was personalized with the presence of State Superintendent of Public Instruction Ray Page and a special tribute to County School Head W. C. Petty.

Petty was honored for his long years of service to Lake County, years that saw the problems of school administration increased manifold by the birthrate explosion and by demands for more state aid from school districts faced with increasing enrollment and a tax income that was falling behind the demand.

Page, as the featured speaker, unleashed some verbal chastisement of the Kerner Administration in Springfield, but his talk didn't have much impact because his audience seemed to be more interested in comparing golf scores or discussing the gubernatorial race in the Republican primary next spring.

A surprise guest at the GOP outing was Circuit Judge Philip Yager, a Democrat appointed to the bench by Gov. Kerner who apparently is under the impression that the judicial reform voted by the populace in the last election is really removing politics from the judiciary.

Judge Yager's appearance at the outing was no more surprising, however, than the appearance of Bill Gyzen, a one-time office-seeker on the Democratic slate, at Elmer Wolff's Corn Roast the previous week.

Gyzen has formally announced that he has severed his connection with the Democratic Party and will henceforth work actively for the GOP.

On hand at the golf outing was Max Wildman, Lake Bluff attorney and Congressional candidate a year ago who is keeping posted on matters political "just in case."

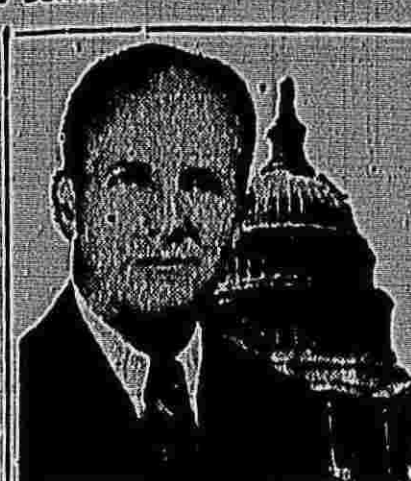

Wildman, of course, is keeping himself available in the event the voters of the 12th Congressional District feel that one term is enough for Cong. Robert McClory.

Thus far, however, political talk seems to center more on the gubernatorial and presidential races than on Congress or even the local races. Those people who accuse Rep. W. J. Murphy of personal motives in his refusal to accept the re-apportionment plan presented by the Democrats are forgetting a vital factor.

The Democratic plan, which would create a new district from Waukegan, Deerfield, and Shields Townships, would virtually assure the House Majority Leader of continued membership in the state legislature because these are the very areas where opposition to the Antioch assemblyman has been most intense.

Now that Courtesy Jim Moran's marathon swimmers have crossed Lake Michigan and new worlds are being sought to conquer perhaps the Chain O' Lakes Resort owners Assn. could interest Moran in conducting his swim in the Chain.

The swimmers could start at the Wilmot dam and go to the McHenry Locks with detours into each of the lakes comprising the Chain.

Your Congressman Reports....

By Cong. Robert McClory

It should be of general interest to know what Members of Congress are thinking in contemplation of the gigantic "March on Washington," scheduled for Wednesday, August 28.

There was some early speculation that many Members of Congress might select this time to leave Washington for brief vacations. However, with active sessions scheduled for Congress during the week of the "march," it was expected that most of our Senators and Representatives would be in Washington—either working in their offices, attending committee meetings, or taking part in the legislative debates in the Capitol. In addition, being absent from Washington on August 28th might be interpreted as an attempt to avoid the civil rights issue, which is bound to come before the Congress later in the session.

About two weeks ago a communication reached me, on behalf of the NAACP Washington Bureau, requesting appointments in my office for "members of my constituency" who might attend a "leadership conference" in this city the following week. I replied by advising that the door of my office is always open to all of my constituents who have any petitions, requests, or suggestions with regard to our great national and international problems. Although no visitors appeared then, it is more than likely that my stand in support of substantial civil rights would make such a visit unnecessary.

There is a large segment of opinion which is quite adverse to this massive demonstration. Many such critical expressions are voiced by those who are supporters of meaningful civil rights laws. Most members of Congress who may be expected to support civil rights legislation made their positions known, well in advance of the "March on Washington," also long before the various demonstrations which have taken place throughout the country.

Recognizing the need for temperate conduct and respecting the desires of Members of Congress not to be subjected to coercion or emotional displays, the "March" arrangement committees have wisely announced that their demonstration would not be staged at the Capitol, but some blocks away. Instead of continuing up Pennsylvania Avenue to the Capitol, they would indulge in a program of speeches and choral singing while small groups kept advance appointments "on the Hill," with their Representatives and Senators.

It would be an unfortunate disservice to the lofty intentions of those who organized, supported, and took part in this "great march" if any public figures sought to gain personal or partisan political advantage from this demonstration. In the opinion of this Member of Congress we should regard the "march" as a symbolic exhibition—expressing a desire for equal citizenship. The conduct of those who take part will determine whether the "march" is helpful—or damaging—to the cause of civil rights legislation. In my opinion, it holds forth little hope of accomplishing any substantial legislative ends. It could have quite the opposite effect.

Here on the "Hill," we watched, hoping that all would go well. Let the "marchers" come and then let them go home again, leaving us—the elected representatives of the people—to deliberate on the great issues of individual rights, without pressures or demonstrations.

Along The Way

with ANNIE MAE

Trials and tribulations of a gossip columnist you see, are quite different than a reporter's soiree. To seek out news and track it down.

Is the job of both, in any town. But the gossip columnist is feared by many. And consequently mouths become very "clammy." Such is the case when trouble is brewing.

Nobody will tell just who is a "stewin'." So if the news from Annie seems "lean" this week, it's only because she couldn't get you to speak!

THE LATEST REPORT: George Plasko is re-cooping in a Chi Hospital after a recent spinal operation. Looks like the Art Guild (Got it right that time I hope) is going to lose its gallery location. Somebody leased it but nobody's telling whom.

Grace Amendola will be teaching in Waukegan when the school bell rings again, where she has just settled in her new apartment. Bill Brooks is supporting the Metreel Co. again, determined to break that 200 mark. The Mesdames Stanich, LaPlant, and Manzardo hosted a lovely early fall Bridge Luncheon at Smart's Country House on Tuesday.

Red and Louise Murrie have just returned from a northern vacation and were accompanied by Mrs. Simons. BEHIND THE PRESS: Happy Birthday to you! Happy Birthday to you! Happy Birthday to you! Dear Howard Shepard, I'll bet you didn't know of Annie knew.

THE LAST DROP: Bob Wilton is the newest face apprenticing for the Rescue Squad. Looks like a sure thing for that Main St. Drug store for that Lake St. vacancy. The new snack bar in the Ben Franklin has been "cussed" and discussed at great lengths. Just to pass along some info that I was curious about. Those new cars parked up at Smart's are John Tere's and Annie thinks that's pretty good advertising, cause every one asks about them. The annual "Lions' Dunking" Party will be held Sat. Nite, to feast on the beef Ed Kugle won at the Bar-B-Q and turned around and donated for Saturday's affair. Bottoms up everyone! DID YOU HEAR: The definition of a noisy goat? It's a HOOTENANNY! Sing along today, Annie Mae

THURSDAY, AUGUST 29, 1963 THE ANTIOCH NEWS 2

Your Governor Reports

by OTTO KERNER

Labor Day, 1963, should be a joyous occasion for most Illinoisans. More persons are working in our state than ever before, at higher wages. Our unemployment rate is consistently below the national average and the rates in other industrial states. The evidence shows Illinois is moving strongly and steadily toward new heights of economic development and opportunity.

In each of the last 12 months, all-time records have been set for employment in that particular month. Disregarding such variables as seasonal and agricultural jobs, the number of persons employed during July—the last month for which figures are available—was 3,016,400, an all-time record.

The average weekly earnings of production workers in Illinois manufacturing plants for the same month was $108.80, down one cent an hour from the record average of the month before. One example of how our state compares in this field: the average weekly earnings of manufacturing workers in Illinois exceeded $100 as early as May 1951, while the average for the United States exceeded $100 for the first time this June.

Marked improvements have been made in less heralded, but equally important areas. For instance, we have stepped up the number and quality of safety inspections to ensure compliance with health and safety rules. The result has been that the labor injury rate has dropped to an all-time low—14.8 injuries reported per 1,000 workers.

This is no time, of course, to rest on our oars. While substantially under the average and below previous years, our state has some 190,000 persons unemployed. We are redoubling our efforts to whittle down the unemployment rolls, through such cooperative programs as the Manpower Development and Training Act, which has already led to 9,000 persons being equipped with skills that are and will remain in demand.

If we continue to build up on this and other programs initiated in the past few years and persevere in enlarging our cooperative efforts involving business, industry, labor, local communities and the state government, the economic future of our state is bright.

Hail, Farewell

Pfc. William Gallagher finished his stint in the army last week and arrived home August 18. He and his bride of a year, the former Rosina Mena, have been separated by his army service, with Bill at Fort Carson, Colorado, and Rosina attending Loyola University.

They won't be setting up housekeeping right away, though Rosina, who received her B. S. degree in English from Loyola in June, leaves for Rome on August 31 to pursue her studies there under a scholarship she was granted. She plans to work for her Master's degree now. Rosina and Bill were one-half of a double wedding last August, Rosina's sister and her husband being the other couple. A joint homecoming for Bill and an anniversary celebration was held for both couples at the home of Rosina's parents in Mundelein Saturday.

Anne Kelley Talks About Diamonds

Diamonds may not be a girl's best friend, but it would be hard to find a woman who doesn't have at least a wistful interest in them.

Diamonds will be the theme of a talk to be presented to members of the Altar & Rosary Society on Sept. 9 by Anne Kelley, a representative of the Illinois Bell Telephone Co. Copies of some of the world's most famous stones—the Cullinan Diamond, the Hope Diamond, and the Koh-i-noor, will be displayed by Miss Kelley while she tells all about diamonds. How they're mined, cut and polished, their industrial uses, and how Illinois Bell makes use of them to bring you fast, dependable telephone service will be included in the talk.

"Jewels for a Queen" is the name of the talk, and it will be presented at the September meeting of the Altar & Rosary Society after the Rosary and Benediction at St. Peter's Church on Sept. 9, at 7:45 p.m.

In And About Our Town

Bob Angel celebrated his 77th birthday last week—August 22. Sounds like to say he doesn't look it, but it would still be an understatement.

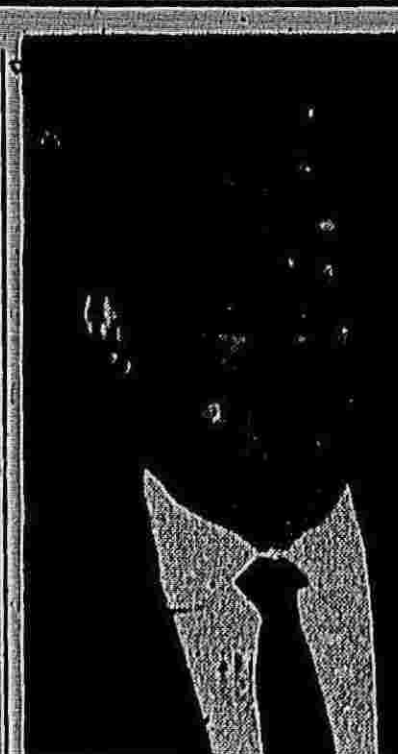

Bob's the owner, and proprietor of The Angels, located on Route 83 north of Antioch. The Angels is a rambling country house converted into a bar and one of Antioch's better eating places.

Bob operates the Angel's with the help of his second wife, Rose, and her son, Allen Duell. Allen is the promoter of special events featured at The Angels—the Saturday night Hootenannies and an art show for the benefit of Countryside Hospital.

About 65 people, all family—gathered on the patio of The Angels on August 17 to celebrate Bob's birthday. When Rose and Bob married fifteen years ago she had five children—Maxine, Ronald, Donna, Allen and Yvonne. Bob had three sons, Harold, Bill and Bob. With wives, husbands, and the thirty grandchildren, this makes quite a crowd. One of Bob's sons, Bill, made an all-time record for the greatest number of points scored by a high school football player, back in 1931, at St. Catherine's High School in Racine. The record still stands.

Bob started life in St. John's, Newfoundland. He came to Boston when he was 20 years old. In 1908, he and a friend started for California, working their way across the country.

Bob wandered through many of the cities and states of the United States, and spent six years at sea, before he settled down in Chicago, in 1920, and from there to Racine. He spent six years as a dining room steward with the merchant marine. In his wanderings, he gained a lot of experience in the restaurant business which has stood him in good stead.

The Angels were known in this area before they opened their present place of business. They spent 6½ years at the Spring Valley Country Club just before purchasing their present place of business.

Bob was presented with a portrait of himself, painted by Betty Lubello of Twin Lakes, Wis., for his birthday. It hangs on the wall of the dining room.

The Angel's looks like a nice place to settle down. Set in the midst of farmland, it looks from the outside like a large, pleasant country home. Inside, the spacious rooms are remodeled and quietly lovely.

A nice harbor, for a man who's done his wandering. A nice place to work and live. At 77, Bob Angel doesn't look like he's ready to step down from either working or living.

"Where The Boys Are—"

ILLINOIS GARDEN CLUB SCHEDULES EVENTS

The Garden Club of Illinois is looking forward to two big events in the near future—a flower-arranging program on Monday, Sept. 9, at the annual President's Day at the Palmer House in Chicago; and a course in Landscape Design to be offered to the public on Sept. 4-6 in the auditorium of the Carson, Pirie Scott & Co. building in Chicago.

The course in Landscape Design is offered by the co-operation of the University of Illinois Agriculture Landscape Extension Service. The sessions will begin at 9:30 a.m. each day.

(ANTIOCH) — W. Students Will Serve As Navigators

Bea Amundsen, 250 Hickory Lane, Oakwood Knolls, Antioch, is one of 24 students at Northern Illinois' fifth Aerospace Institute. She, with the other students, will serve as navigators in the flights of 14 light airplanes from DeKalb to Urbana Saturday.

Each of the group will have an on-the-spot problem in navigation, actually giving the pilots instructions on where to go.

Scout News

Camp Ma-Ka-Ja-Wan, operated by the North Shore Area Council, Boy Scouts of America, closed its successful 1963 season on August 23. A total of 1361 Boy Scouts attended camp during the eight week season. 89 volunteer Scout leaders went to camp with their troops to provide additional leadership and program supervision.

As an indication of the participation of the program more than 700 boys advanced a rank in Scouting, over 1100 merit badges were earned, and 500 Scouts completed the mile swim requirement as part of the physical fitness program.

Twenty-one Explorer Scouts, under the leadership of Mr. Taylor Drake of Kenilworth, and Mr. Alan Moore of Deerfield, returned Saturday from a twelve day expedition to Philmont, the National Explorer Base at Cimarron, New Mexico.

Four Scouts attended the World Jamboree at Marathon, Greece and three Scouts participated in an exchange program in Sweden.

Outboard motors, usually thought of as strictly recreational items, have a key role in the nation's armed forces. The U. S. Army Engineers depend on outboard-powered assault boats for river crossings in the face of enemy opposition. During World War II, the detachable motors played an important part in the crossing of the Rhine. In the famous Marine battles at Guadalcanal and through the Solomons, outboard-powered barges, landing craft and rubber rafts were used extensively for carrying troops and supplies and evacuating the wounded.

Antioch Couple Win Mr. and Mrs. Title

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Simon of 914 Main St., Antioch, are the 1963 Illinois state couples' fishing champions.

They won the crown, title trophy and the right to represent Illinois in the world Series of Fresh Water Mr.-Mrs. meet Nov. 2-3 at Bull Shoals Lake, Ark., by totaling 62 1/2 points in the finals Sunday on Channel Lake and Lake Catherine.

The Simons caught one northern pike and two black bass in the seven-hour fishoff as they defeated 17 other finalists, including Mr. and Mrs. Ed Rakosnik of Chicago, the 1962 champions who were far down in the listings.

Lewis, 25, a bakery salesman, has been fishing since he was six, mostly on Chain O' Lakes waters. His wife, 21, has been fishing only for the last 90 days, taking up the sport at the suggestion of Lewis, who said:

"I wanted her to enter the Mr.-Mrs. meet, so I decided to coach my wife in the finer arts of sports fishing. Within the last month and a half, she learned fast."

Mrs. Simon caught one bass, while Lewis brought in the other bass and northern pike.

They used Marlynn night-crawlers (artificial) to lure the bass and Lewis took the northern spoonplugging (this method of fishing is dragging a Buck Perry spoonplug, which resembles a shoehorn, along the bottom of the lake.)

Barney Shunnesson, operator of the Channel Lake Boat House, who donated the trophies for the Mr.-Mrs. meet as well as sponsoring and staging the popular event, will defray the cost of the Simons' traveling expenses to and from Bull Shoals Lake.

While at Bull Shoals, the Antioch couple will be the guests of Everett Crow of the Crown-Barnes resort there, who is playing host to all the state winners.

Mr. and Mrs. George Kraymer of McHenry finished second, totaling 47 points by catching the same number and species of fish as did the Simons' but they were smaller.

(In the system of scoring,

10 points were given for each northern pike, black bass and walleye caught and five points for every pound. Panfish brought one point apiece and a point for every pound of fish.)

Chicago fire lieutenant and Mrs. John Spohn were third with 36 points for one northern pike.

Shunnesson donated the trophies for the top 10 finishers. Besides the aforementioned trio, other couples winning trophies were:

4—Mr. and Mrs. Tykowski of Spring Grove, 25 1/2 points; 5—Mr. and Mrs. Terry O'Malley of Chicago, 17 1/2 points; 6—Mr. and Mrs. George A. Wendell of Round Lake Park, 15 1/2 points; 7—Mr. and Mrs. Bob Lang of Ingleside, 15 1/4 points; 8—Mr. and Mrs. Robert DeDecker of Ingleside, 15 points; 9—Mr. and Mrs. Richard Langlois of Arlington Heights, 14 points; 10—Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Badka of Chicago, 13 points.

Sunday's finalists qualified during a 13-day preliminary trial which was held Aug. 12 through Aug. 24.

The 1963 Illinois state individual fishing championship meet will be held on Channel Lake and Lake Catherine from Sept. 9 through Sept. 22. Qualifying will be held during the first 13 days. There is no entry fee. All resident anglers, 16 or older, are eligible to compete.

Whats

Cookin'?

By Harry H. Stern

IT IS BETTER TO KNOW USELESS THINGS THAN TO KNOW NOTHING.

how come a guy will propose to a girl under a light he wouldn't pick out a tie by?

Fred Dittmer, in company with Albert Frerks and Bill Holt came back with over 200 stripers from a fishing jaunt up at Winnebago. That was not all they came back with.

Bill Holt dredged up an almost-new casting rod and reel which some hapless angler had lost. One of the party tied into an eighty-pound sturgeon, which proceeded to break the line and make its getaway (they said). So how come they knew how much he weighed? Yeah, I know—he had scales. There's been a strong smell of smoked fish along Grass Lake lately. Do you suppose... smoked sturgeon... naw, it can't be, it's illegal. (Ken Meyer out on Petite Lake comes up with the definition of illegal—a sick hold).

Our giveaway program is nothing more or less than we've got more liberty than we can use and insist upon giving some of it away.

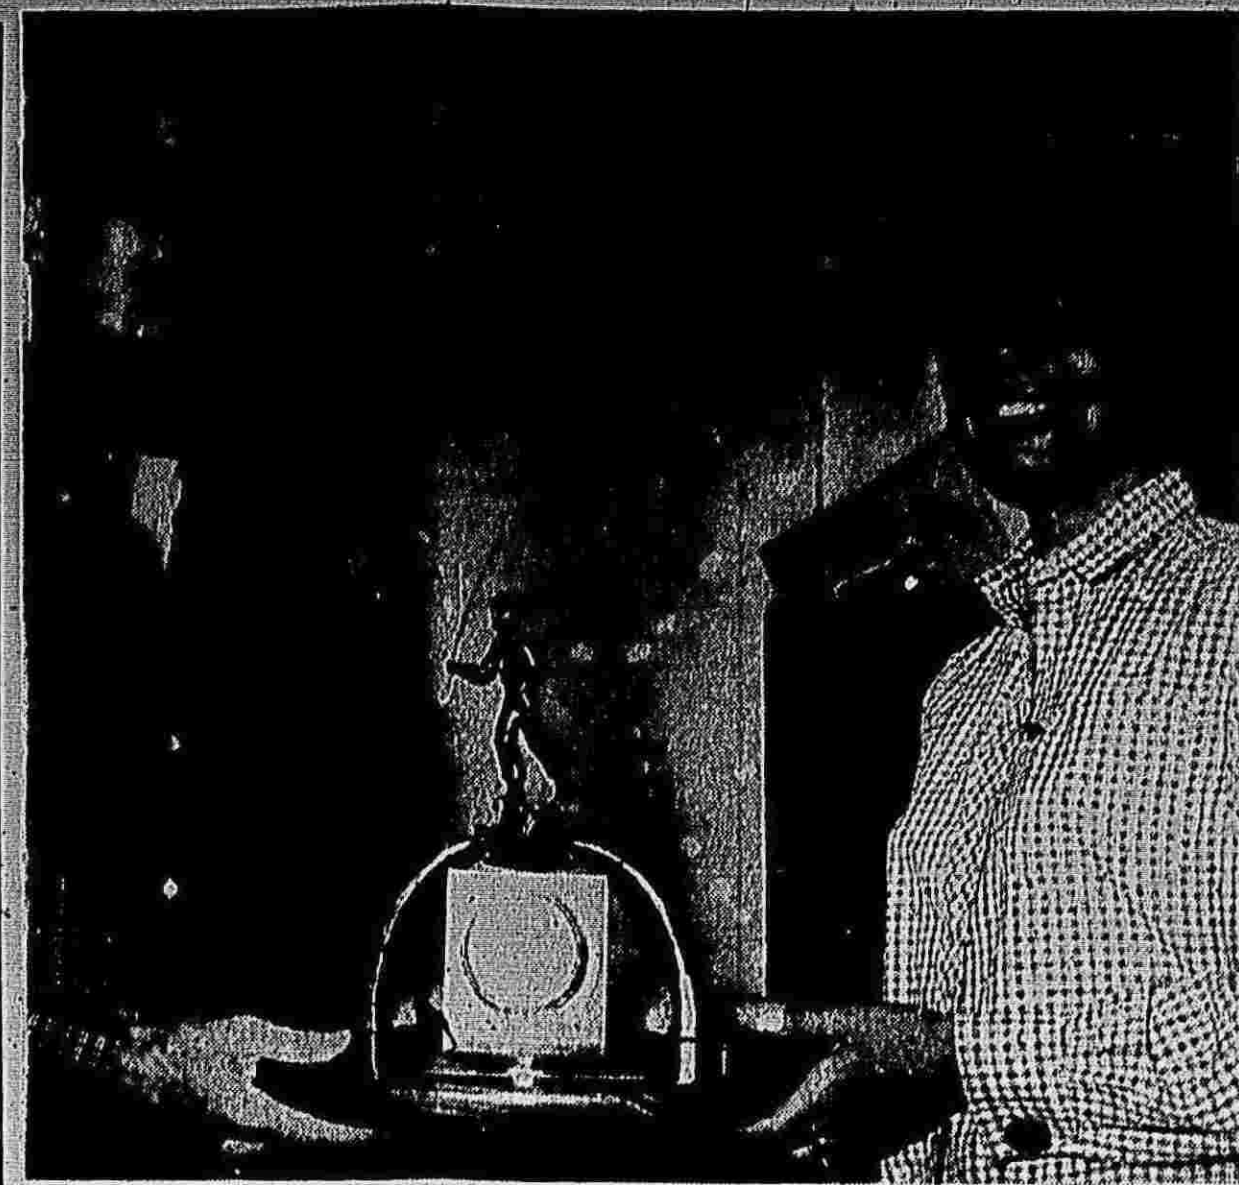

You've seen movies of these too-rich gazaboos on a hunting safari with their multitude of gun bearers and litter carriers, totting them and all of their comforts of home on their backs through the thickest jungles. Well, the Hallings, out on Grass Lake, have come up with a fishing counterpart of the same. It starts out with a "floating front porch," (one of those Kayot pontoon rigs, girls. (Halling sells 'em. with the railings removed, plenty of easy-sitting-on deck chairs, enough electric lights (battery operated) to turn the stygian darkness into almost daylight on board ship, and a goodly supply of tender six-packs. There was Chuckie Haling, Harvey (Handsome Harvey) Strametz, Al Stowe, Jim (auto racer) Sullivan and little old word-banger me. We anchored in the Fox River near Barney Island, and began fishing. We threw back more than 200 stripers and crappies, most of which would have gladdened the hearts of most sturgeon-snagging anglers. And all the time we were sitting easy on our comfortable chairs, hardly exerting ourselves. Louie Kempf, Jr. showed up with more supplies, so he took over the task of keeping everyone supplied with refreshments, and also removing the hooked fish from our lines. Four fish were tossed back for every one that was kept, and we wound up with a twenty-gallon garbage can half filled, with the average going one-half to three-quarters of a pound. This style of fishing has to be experienced. It can't be imagined because it is almost unbelievable. We were using 7 foot spinning rods, with a like amount of line stripped out, a pinkie on the end, pulled slowly thru the water, and whammo! a fish. Sullivan was the champ of the night. It seems he always had a fish on his line. Another successful set-up is a pinkie, with a crapple killer (available at Ed Sorenson's Bait & Bull Mill) dropper fly. This rig brought in doubles. I have never seen so many...

so this drunk wound up at the local zoo where he saw his first zebra, remarked, whadda ya know! A sports model donkey.

BIG NEWS SCOOP DEPT.—All the 1964 models of Evinrude Motors, due out around September 18th, will use half as much oil in the fuel mix, as did previous models. This cuts the oil-to-gas ratio from 24 to 1, down to 50 to 1. In plain Americanese, you will use only one PINT of oil to six gallons of gasoline. They attribute this savings in oil to increased engine efficiency, based on improved methods of manufacture. Baloney! This is a good argument to use on the wife so she'll let you buy that new engine. "Dear, it costs only half as much for oil to run an Evinrude, so now we can afford to own a new one." Try it! She might just go.

Reimers Takes Feature At Waukegan Track

WAUKEGAN (Sunday)—Johnny Reimer of Caledonia, Wisconsin, took the 30-lap feature at New Waukegan Speedway Sunday night in 8:58.73 ahead of Bill Shoulders, Waukegan, and Jim Sullivan of Antioch. The next three over the line were Fran Seamars, Milwaukee, Roger Otto of Burlington and Gordon Gorman of Libertyville. The race saw a few near spins but the most serious mishap occurred when Ted Schuster of Zion caught fire and raced into the infield.

"Junior" Dodd of Waukegan won the semi-feature for Modifieds with Bill Kline Neighbor race will feature all women drivers on Saturday night according to Promoters Bob Karry and Gordon Sill.

Hensley Motors of Antioch will donate the trophy for the 50-lap feature next Sunday night. Miss Karyn Sillanoff, who, as Miss Hensley Motors won the Miss Lake Region title in the Jaycees' beauty contest, will present the trophy to the winner.

16-Run Blast Scores Upset At Golfview

By Bill Ferris

Wednesday night, Aug. 21, Helen Harger had to put an end to Doc Carlucci's no-hit feat and Emerson Bulck's upset triumph in the Richard Seyfarth tourney by ending a 14 game losing streak with a 10 to 15 win over Gibbs & Jensen in 10 innings.

Papa Clyde Harger, who was put on the mound by Mama, looked like he would have to be driven back to his lodge by the Antioch Rescue Squad as he left the field with a smile a mile wide.

Trailing 11 to 8 going into the 9th, Mgr. Pete Matteoni's boys came to life and blasted out with 7 runs to take a 15 to 11 lead. This should have been it, but the Dodgemmen didn't see it that way as they bounced back with a big 4, to tie the score at 15 all.

A run in the 10th on hits by Roger Dankert, George Gaertner, Daryl Sullivan and Pete Gaertner did it and gave Pine Oaks its first win.

Downs and Weir Blast Fences

Lyle Downs hit a grand slam in the 5th and a 3 run home in the 9th which gave him a total of 8 R.B.I.'s.

Rich Weir hit a pair of home runs and a double T. to raise his average to .471. Roger Dankert had 4 hits. George Gaertner 3, Elmer Prell 3, Clyde Harger 2, Al Smith 2, Daryl Sullivan 2, and John Gaertner 1.

Going into the game Rich Pahlke leading the league with a .604 went 1 for 5 and as of now still leads with a .561.

Joe Christensen had 3 hits including a home run.

Golfview Whips Pine Oaks

Tuesday night the Badgers took a 14 to 8 decision over Pine Oaks.

Ken Kube with 3 hits including a home run, Chuck Mittevic with 3 hits and Jerry Fox hitting for 3 led the attack.

Lyons-Ryan Ties Hensley for 1st

Thursday night it was Lyons & Ryan blasting out 20 hits to crush Gibbs & Jensen 14 to 2, and go into a first place tie with Hensley Motors.

Duck Season Opens November 1

Illinois has selected the dates Nov. 1 through Dec. 5 for its 35-day duck season. The announcement was made this week by William T. Lodge, director of the Illinois Department of Conservation, and is in accordance with a plan prescribed by the U. S. Department of Interior, Fish and Wildlife Service.

Goose season will be from Oct. 20 through Dec. 5 in all counties except Alexander, Union, Jackson and Williamson. In these counties, the season begins Nov. 4 and lasts through Dec. 23, or if the 20,000 quota harvest of birds has been reached prior to Dec. 23, the season in these counties will be closed. The jackknipe season will open at noon Nov. 1 and continue through Nov. 30.

Squirrel hunting season in the northern conservation zone of Illinois will begin at Sunrise, Sept. 1, and end at Sunset Oct. 31. Hunting hours are from sunrise until sunset (CST) every day of the season. Daily kill limit is five squirrels and possession limit is 10 squirrels, except that on the first day of the season the daily limit and the possession limit are both five squirrels.

The Northern Conservation Zone includes all counties north of Calhoun, Jersey, Madison, Bond, Fayette, Effingham, Jasper and Crawford.

Leagues Open Season at Antioch Bowl

The Antioch Bowl has become a beehive of activity again as league bowlers who have abandoned the sport for the summer try to cram in some practice games before the opening of the league season.

Most of the leagues start their regular season next week. Some are still short of a few bowlers, some still need whole teams. The Friday night Major league, particularly, seems to be in trouble this year, so far as finding bowlers to fill out its ranks. Seven or eight teams seems to be the final total for this league, which has had 12 teams for more years than we can remember.

Monday night being Labor Day, the Monday night teams won't be starting their season next week. Tuesday, Sept. 3, the Tenpin Toppers start at 7 p.m., the Gutter Ball Girls at 9 p.m.

Wednesday night, Sept. 4, the Business Men's league at 7 p.m., the Chain O' Lakes Mixed at 9 p.m. Also at 9 p.m. is the Good Fellowship league on the last eight alleys.

Thursday afternoon is the Ladies Afternoon league; Thursday night at 7 p.m., the Business Men's league; at 9 p.m., the Bi-State League.

Friday night, Sept. 6, the Pinspotters' league starts its season; at 9 p.m., the Antioch Majors.

Sunday, Sept. 8, at 6:45 p.m., the Moose Mixed league bowls, and on the new eight alleys the George's Bar of Paddock Lake mixed league. A new mixed league will probably be starting at 9 p.m. Sunday night.

A new league will also be starting on Thursday night. Anyone interested in joining is asked to call the alleys.

Ray's Tap Chalks Up 9th Win of Season

Ray's Tap won their 9th game of the season on Sunday, August 25, by defeating a tough Pine Oak team 13-12 in the last inning. Ray's Tap has 4 losses to date.

Trailing all through the game, Ray's team bunched 4 runs together in the bottom of the 7th inning to squeeze by with the win.

Leading the way for Ray's Tap was Dick Wolf with a homer and two doubles. Bud Biller with two doubles and a single in four trips, and Ray Traves, Jr., with 3 singles in 4 trips.

Al Smith had a homer for Pine Oaks.

Next Sunday, Sept. 1, the two teams will clash at Harger's home field near New Munster, Wis., at Highways O and 50.

Saturday Races

Dennis Burgan of Zion had a near "clean sweep" in the fender-car division at the New Waukegan Speedway Saturday night when he took fast time, the Trophy Dash and also copped the 20-lap feature race. Jim Cossman, who led most of the way, lost his right front wheel and kissed the concrete retaining wall only to watch himself lapped by Burgan, Jim Luther, Jack Esther, Andy Anderson, Marty Fitzpatrick and Clarence Baldino in that order. Time: 7:22:48. Burgan's fast time was 1:53.00 for 6 laps in the TD.

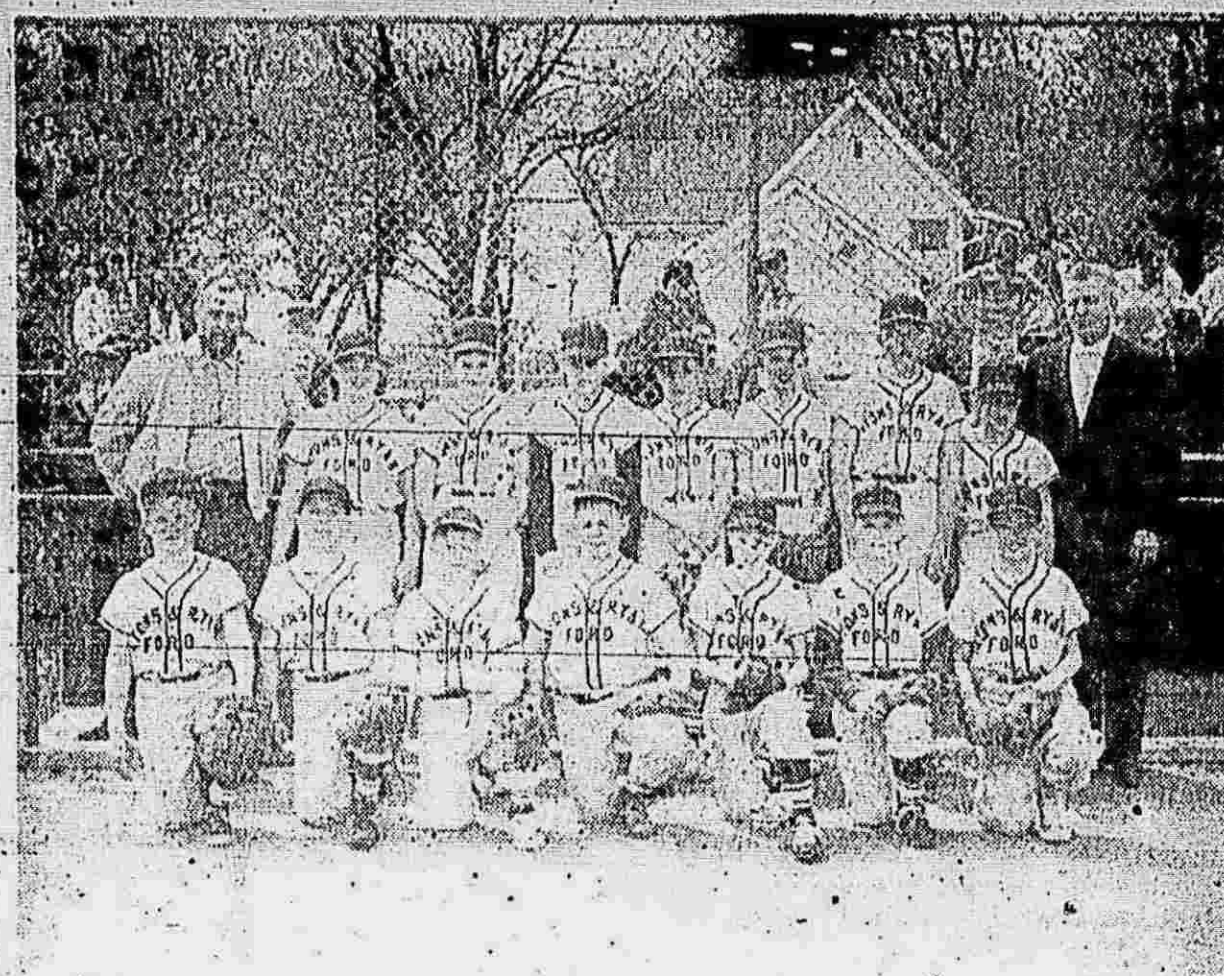

A Chicago-based driver, "Gypsy Joe" Tracy, ran away with the semi-feature in 4:18:90, beating out Ray Dixon, Tommy Dill, Al Luke and Ralph Sinnen.

Something new, called "Beat Your Neighbor" racing, saw six absolute novices selected from the stands by lottery, get out on the quarter mile oval for six laps. The six were selected from over 35 entries by a simple drawing and New Waukegan Speedway Promoters Bob Karry and Gordon Sill provided the cars. Hayden Ludries of Chicago was the winner in the Andy's Auto Salvage race car. All cars were supplied through local dealers and salvage yards. Next Saturday, all drivers will be women for a "Powder Puff" version of "Beat Your Neighbor." At night even be called "Beat Your Neighbor's Wife."

The "Thrill Car" event was won by Lurl McAnally of Zion.

Nitro vs. Jet At Drag Races

One of the greatest match races ever held at any dragstrip will highlight the 7th annual "Midwest Championship" drag races, Labor Day weekend, Sept. 1 and 2, at the Great Lakes Dragaway, Union Grove, Wis. It will pit the world's fastest nitro fuel dragster, the "Chizler" against the world's fastest jet powered dragster, the "Untouchable." The "Chizler" will be piloted by Chris Karanesines of Chicago, while Bob Smith of Santa Clara, California will pilot the "Untouchable."

They will compete in a two out of three match race each day in addition to the open competition featuring the fastest drag racers from the central part of the nation. Both machines are undefeated in match race competition this year, but neither driver or car has competed against the other in any race. Each is the undisputed leader in their respective divisions. The "Chizler" is a piston type engine incorporating a 454 cu. in. full race Chrysler engine, boosted by a GMC supercharger. It develops over 1000 h.p. and turns over at 8000 revolutions per minute. Karanesines, one of the country's top drivers, holds the nitro fuel record of 206.37 miles per hour and the low elapsed time mark of 7.71 seconds.

Smith with the "Untouchable" holds the world's record with a Jet engine dragster for the 1/4 mile. His fastest speed was 259 mph with an elapsed time of only 6 1/2 seconds. It is powered by a F86 Sabrejet engine. Karanesines feels that his many years of experience will pave the way for a win in this, the biggest duel of the year.

Time trials start at 9 a.m. The first match race run will begin at 2 p.m. Union Grove is located just 12 miles north of the Illinois Wisconsin state line on Highway 45.

The Inner Man

A good banquet speaker always has something to say; a poor one has to say something.—The Clinton (Tenn.) Courier-News.

PAUL CHRISTY, the "Golden Boy" of wrestling, will be one of the attractions at the wrestling bouts to be staged at the Wonder Bar Ballroom in Twin Lakes on Saturday, August 31.

BABE BITTNER will be one of the feminine eye-pleasers—and she wrestles too—at the matches slated for this Saturday in Twin Lakes.

Cars Roll, Drivers Shaken As Wilmot Drivers Fight For Win

Ray Darnell of Deerfield took the lead away from Jimmy Mitchell of Menomonee Falls in the 38th lap of the 50 lap feature and went on to the win, averaging 50.25 miles per hour. Darnell drives a Ford powered modified and started in 18th spot in the 50 lap race. Herman Seamars of Milwaukee started off in the lead and then lost it to Kenny Heiden who gave way to Mitchell.

On lap 26, Glen Eichman of Waukegan lost control on the backstretch and went rolling into the fence. He was shaken up and rested in the track ambulance. Final results in the feature were: Darnell, Mitchell, Fran Seamars, Ted Schuster, Heiden, Shoulders, Sullivan, Gorman, Olett, and Ron Larson.

The semi-feature race was its usual thriller as Dick Strohman of Camp Lake, Wis., rolled on the main straightaway into the infield with such force that it tore the top of the car and front end off. The roll bars held and the driver got out under his own power. The car was a total loss. All this only temporarily delayed the win of Dr. Dodd of Waukegan as he led Dick Bently, Bob Chapman, Swede Erickson and Jim Bozeman to the checker. It was Dodd's second win of the night as he also scored in the second 10 lap heat race. Bozeman, Herman Seamars and Fran Seamars were other 10 lap winners.

Eddie Stillman of Milwaukee, 1962 champion and current point leading driver for 1963 honors, set fast time of 19.22 seconds and then was sidelined due to a broken drive shaft. Similar misfortune fell on Dick Aissen of McHenry, leading spectator car driver, who didn't get qualified and spun out of his heat. This let Roger Hagle of Antioch win the heat and pick up to within 6 points of Aissen. Next week will be a 75 lap modified feature race and that will be followed by the season championship race for 100 laps. Fans and merchants have already donated half of the goal of $1000 for lap prize money on the final race night of the year.

Saturday night's purse was $1286 and the attendance was 2245. Fans and drivers hope for warmer weather for the next two races.

Grudge Match Pits Local Wrestlers

Big time All-Star professional wrestling will again return to the Wonder-Bar Ballroom in Twin Lakes, Wis., on Saturday, August 31, starting at 8:30 p.m. when promoter Tom Dorff brings in the finest card of the season.

The main event could be termed a "grudge match", since it is composed of men who have had grievances against each other for a long time. Promoter Dorff is to be complimented for being able to sign the team of Rough Johnny Kace of Antioch, and his manager-partner Gary Hart, against the Midwest Tag Champions Johnny Gilbert, and Billy Goetz of Fox Lake. Tom Dorff has this to say about making the match: "Several fans have asked me when they heard about this match if I really had this tag-team combination signed up. Well, I can say that I have contracts signed by these men in my possession. They will be there."

In another headline event the Bobby-sox idol Paul Christy, the Golden Boy, will meet fiery Pete Kovac, the Jugo-Slav spoiler. Christy is one of the most handsome wrestlers in the game, and has an impressive mat record, having defeated 28 out of 33 opponents with the "sleeper hold." This one alone should be worth the price of admission. The special event will provide a girls' match composed of the Green Bay, Wis., spitfire, Babe Bittner, against Wisconsin's own Marlene Parker, the "doll" of the mat.

A TACHOMETER CAN BE A SKIPPER'S BEST FRIEND

Of all the instruments available to the power boat, either inboard or outboard, the tachometer should rate in importance second only to the compass.

The tachometer measures the rate of engine rotation. Its readings are expressed in RPM—revolutions per minute. Reliance upon an accurately calibrated tachometer can contribute much to safe and economical powerboat operations.

Many boat owners rely wholly on water speedometers to determine distances covered for navigational purposes. Most water speedometers are accurate only in the higher speed ranges above 12 mph.

In fog or complete darkness no discreet skipper operates at high speed so the water speedometer is of little use to him during these crucial periods.

A tachometer is an extremely accurate measurement of engine speed and is reliable at every operating range of an engine.

However, to be of value as a navigational aid, the RPM reading must be translated into speed over and through the water. This means that the skipper must prepare two RPM-boat speed charts.

RPM at boat planing speed and at the same speed off plane will be different because the engine has to work harder when the boat is pushing through the water.

If, for example, a boat is known to come onto plane at 15 mph and holds its planing condition at 14 mph through to its peak speed, a chart must be prepared showing RPM at this and other planing speeds.

Since much of any boat's operation is done at non-planing speeds, this same boat helmsman must also provide himself with an RPM-speed chart from 1-15 mph. Most local waterways have full return for fuel dollars spent. Damage may have occurred to a propeller, an accumulation of bottom growth may be exerting an excessive drag on the boat, or the engine may need a tune up.

Every manufacturer rates his engines' horsepower at a specific RPM and specifies safe RPM ranges. An engine operated far in excess of maximum safe rated RPM for sustained periods can be seriously damaged.

The converse of this is also true. An overly large diameter or pitch propeller may prevent an engine from reaching its rated RPM. Though you bought a certain horsepower, your engine may not develop the horsepower you paid for. A tachometer can aid you in obtaining full dollar value.

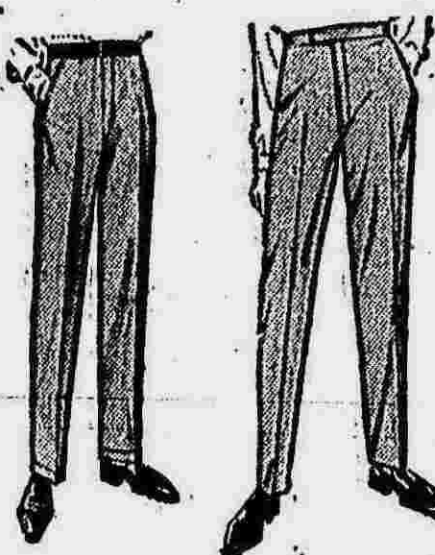

Most boating historians agree that the first true outboard motor was the creation of German engine-builder Gottlieb Deimler, way back in the 1890's. However, others point out that the first "outboard power" was probably provided by a man in the water holding on to a log and kicking.

Once you use New DuPont

LUCITE House Paint
you'll never go back to "hard work" paints!

Once you see how effortlessly new "Lucite"
House Paint flows on—how it dries in minutes—how easy it is to clean up with soap and water after painting, you'll never go back to oil base paints.

And "Lucite" is incredibly durable—dries to a rich flat finish without the temporary shine of old fashioned paints. Hides surface imperfections, resists chalking, cracking, dirt and fading.
